

On the occasion of the Dragon Boat Festival, in order to promote students' understanding of traditional Chinese festivals and customs, promote excellent traditional Chinese culture, enhance class cohesion, and enrich campus life, the Dragon Boat Race in the Dry Land during the Dragon Boat Festival in middle schools was held at the West Sports Ground.

Vice Principal Xu Nan, Party Committee Member and Vice Principal Dong Wanjun, Youth League Secretary Chen Xianghua, Junior High School Department Director Liu Xinjun, Deputy Youth League Committee Secretary Jiang Fenghai, Junior High School Department Deputy Director Jiang Guoguang and Dong Fengzhi, and Youth League Committee Teacher Zhou Wenwen participated in this event; Director Dong Xuejun, Section Chief Ma Longkui, and Teacher Zhang Cai served as competition judges, and all students from the junior high school participated in this competition.

Deputy Director Jiang Guoguang was in charge of this event and gave a speech titled "Traditional Festivals, Always Remember". Secretary Chen Xianghua of the Youth League Committee emphasized the promotion of excellent traditional Chinese culture, the cultivation of patriotism and joint cooperation, and the enhancement of class cohesion. A unique dryland dragon boat competition has officially begun. The dry land dragon boat competition is an innovation of the Dragon Boat Festival custom activity, which tests the cooperation and tacit understanding of the troops.

合影话别在校服上互送离别赠言校园里弥漫着浓浓惜别之情

On the field, the athletes rode "dragon boats", shouting neat and loud slogans, and demonstrating their speed, passion, endurance, and skills with resolute and orderly steps. The cheers of the on-site audience rose one after another, and each unit demonstrated a positive and enterprising spirit and teamwork ability, showcasing the upward spirit of the people of No.1 Middle School.

After intense competition, Class 1 and Class 1 of Grade 1 and Grade 2 won the first prize, Class 1 and Class 3 of Grade 1 and Grade 2 won the second prize, and Class 3 of Grade 1, Grade 2, and Grade 4 of Grade 2 won the third prize. Dragon Boat Festival, enjoy happiness with zongzi. School leaders not only awarded certificates to students, but also prepared Zongzi prizes. Perceiving the Dragon Boat Festival, tasting it, and classmates sharing the joy of traditional festivals together.

Dragon boat racing on dry land, interested in welcoming the Dragon Boat Festival. This dry land dragon boat competition not only made synchronous students understand the importance of joint cooperation, but also touched on the strong strength of the group. It also made students feel the continuous and knowledgeable nature of traditional Chinese culture, enhancing their sense of national pride. On a scorching summer day, mugwort is fragrant. Wishing us a healthy Dragon Boat Festival!